Special Interests and Concerns

- Land use planning that supports compact urban development, mixed use projects, a vibrant downtown, and design standards for a livable Eugene.
  - Transportation planning that reduces reliance on the automobile for some trips, that encourages transit and other alternate modes, and that focuses on maintaining our current system before expanding it. Inter-city high-speed rail is also a priority.
  - Parks and recreation.
  - Arts and cultural experiences accessible to all Eugeneans.
  - Community policing based in police-citizen partnership and communication, and coupled with support for early intervention programs.
  - Good, open government, including improved public participation, city charter reform, and neighborhood program revitalization.
  - Affordable housing distributed throughout the city; support for temporary and transitional housing.
  - Economic development that focuses on locally owned, environmentally responsible businesses.
